

CANDLE SAFETY

Candle Safety

The NFPA found residential fires sparked by candles are twice as likely to occur in December than any other

According to the NFPA, candle fires... month in the year.

- Account for 2.4% of all fires
- Result in 6% of total injuries from fires
- Account for 3% of all fatalities from fires

Candle Safety

- Never leave burning candles unattended.
- Place candles well away from curtains, bedding and other flammable materials.

- Keep candles away from table decorations, trees and other greenery.
- Don't place lighted

Candle Safety

- Don't use candles to decorate a tree.
- Extinguish tapers when less than two inches tall.
- Extinguish all candles before going to sleep.
- Always keep burning candles up high, out of the reach of children.

Candle Safety

- Place candles in holders that will not tip over

- Keep candles, Yule logs, Menorahs, and Kinaras

away from drapes, trees or potentially flammable objects

- Extinguish candles before leaving

home or going to sleep

The background of the image is a repeating pattern of pink poinsettia flowers with green leaves on a light cream-colored background. The text is centered over this pattern.

Stay Safe This Holiday—Use Candles Wisely!